

Peter M. Dostler

Short CV

International Consultant with 30 years of experience, Specialist in Strategic Planning and Management, Innovation Management, Preparing Organizations for the Future, and Leadership Development. Postgraduate and Master of Business Administration in Business Management from Fundação Getúlio Vargas in São Paulo and the School of Administration of São Paulo. Also Master in Administration and Management for Executives from the University of Miami and postgraduate in Project Management from the Catholic University of Brasília (among others). He is a speaker and lecturer, giving lectures, courses and seminars throughout Brazil and abroad. He has executed numerous projects in Germany, Austria, Italy, USA, Argentina, Mexico, Africa and Brazil.

Executive Director of Steinbeis-SIBE do Brasil, Founder of GD Gestão & Desenvolvimento Empresarial Ltda. He is a Consultant and Revenue Advisor for the International Monetary Fund – IMF in Washington/USA and has worked on more than 60 missions in 15 countries, such as Angola, Mozambique, Ghana, Zimbabwe, Liberia, Sierra Leone, Cape Verde, the United States, among others. Among the 300 projects carried out for the Brazilian Government, it stood out in the following works: Federal Revenue, Ministry of Planning, Budget and Management, Ministry of Economy, Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation, Ministry of Mines and Energy, Ministry of Tourism, Ministry of Justice, Federal Police, Federal Highway Police, Ministry of Agriculture, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Education, Central Bank, National Strategy of the Public Ministry, Federal Supreme Court, Federal Audit Court. He is decorated with the Commander's Medal by the Planning and Management work. He currently leads planning, design and implementation projects for Innovation-Promoting Environments such as the Innovation City – the largest Innovation HUB in the State of Espírito Santo, the MD HUB and others. He is a Mentor at WADHWANI FOUNDATION whose purpose is to create 10 million jobs by 2030 in the IGNITE program powered by INOVATIVA.